

1) Put the sentences into negative or interrogative in the going to future.

1 He eats a hamburger.

*He is going to eat a hamburger.

2 You read in the afternoon.

*You are going to read in the afternoon.

3 They sleep at night.

*They are going to sleep at night.

4 I play basketball.

*I'm going to play basketball.

5 He jumps in the park.

*He's going to jump in the park.

2) Look and complete the sentences using a lot of, a little, much or many.

1 Eva hasn't got much orange juice.

2 Paul's got a lot of peas.

3 Greg's got a little ice.

4 Rachel hasn't got many biscuits.

3) Look and describe what was in the fridge yesterday.

- *PIZZA
- *BOTTLE OF KETCHUP
- *GREEN BEANS
- *HAMBURGERS

There was a pizza.

There was a bottle of ketchup.

There were green beans.

There were two hamburgers.